Soriyya Bawa writes and edits beauty content; attends industry events; scopes the scene for the latest and greatest beauty products; and assists on set at photo shoots. But her favourite thing about being ANOKHI's beauty assistant? — “Whether you’re a chic fashionista or like to keep things a little more simple, there’s something out there that will work for you,” she says. “I love being able to help people find their perfect match, that one thing that will help make them feel great inside and out.” A freelance writer and editor and former deputy editor at Tribute magazine and www.tribute.ca, the only thing that rivals her interest in all things beauty is her love of writing. As far back as she remembers she was jotting down ideas for her first bestselling novel. “Which is still a work in progress,” she says.

Richard Dubois is a beauty, advertising and editorial fashion photographer based in Toronto. He photographed this issue’s cover story, Open Chest: with Actress Priyanka Chopra, and our fashion spread, Model Citizen. Dubois’s work has appeared in ad campaigns and publications worldwide, including ELLE, Zink, Studio, Tributé (Paris) and Highlights (Australia). His work has also been featured on Fashion Television, Project Runway and Canada’s Next Top Model.

Priti Salian (who penned Fashionably Frugal and Top 5 Homestays in India) is passionate about writing, her husband and her daughter, though not necessarily in that order. Besides writing for ANOKHI for over a year now, the India-based freelance writer and journalist has had her work appear in numerous national publications including Femina, Prevention, Hindustan Times, Discover India, Harmony and Child, Mother & Baby. When she’s not busy writing, Salian enjoys reading, globetrotting and being the not-so-perfect army wife. Currently, she is also working on her first fiction e-book.
